[AW to SWW, Nov. 30, 1884]

My dear - When you passed out - by the kitchen this A.M., I was a little disturbed - having a contest with Annie's Bride of Spain - a most-annusual demonstration about carrying the chicken in a basket - She & Sarah had rolled it - up in ill shape in a piece of paper & the cranberry was to be carried in the hand also - This did not accord with my ideas - So I told her I would carry it - nearly this P.M., This took her to her senses - & the affair went off without further talk.

I write to say that I want you to come in & dine Tuesday P.M., & bring Mary with you - I'll be there much -

If Dan will drive in - all difficulties will be solved There will be room for one more - I should like to have Edward come - but suppose he will not feel disposed to do so - If Ed, will not come then, bring Mrs. B. - on my invitation -

It will be pleasant for you to have some company - & the interruption of Mrs.
E. & Mrs. L. communicating will amount to nothing as they will have the whole evening for talk - Do come - it shall be our Thanksgiving Festival & the more the better - If E. will not come then perhaps both Brig. & Cary will come -

Yours ever A - Sandy Park.
